

LANDMARKS PRESERVATION GUILD APPLICATION

The Landmarks Preservation Guild (LPG) is a committed group of volunteers who examine and maintain works of art in the Landmarks collection. They devote time and energy to caring for works of public art so they may be enjoyed by future generations.

Volunteers learn maintenance methods through training sessions led by a conservator. These include techniques to monitor and record changes in works of art and how to clean works of art made of bronze, steel, painted metal, wood, and stone.

LPG volunteers contribute an average of two hours every other week to the program in addition to orientation trainings. Volunteers are also welcome to assist with more complicated treatments conducted by conservators. Volunteers are asked to commit for at least one academic year (two semesters).

If you are interested in participating in the Landmarks Preservation Guild, please complete and send the following application and copy of your resume or C.V. to the Landmarks Collection Assistant: collections@landmarksut.org
